THE celebrated new beer of the Boca Beer Company is all the rage at the Commercial. Don't fail to try it.
THE steamer Kinai had a very rough passage this trip, and it is feared that rough weather has delayed the Likie.
PRINCESS Poomaikalani, Governess of Hawaii, come by the Kinai, this morning, and was saluted by the shore battery.
ADJUTANT L. J. Nahora Hipsa is to Ohlsen for drunkenness were fined $6 each.

of some of our merchants, as will be seen from the advertisements of Messrs. Hackfeld & Co. and Messrs.
Schaefer & Co.
MR. W. D. Raymond brought in this morning a fine specimen of a large luscious honey comb. Mr. Raymond supplies honey of the finest quality in comb and also strained, at his place, No. 11 Beretania street.
ANYONE in want of a cottage or a piece of land, to lease or purchase, or desirous of becoming the owner of a horse and buggy, should do nothing before consulting J. E. Wis-eman's advertisement in to-day's BULLETIN.
By special request Mr. William Noble will address the employees of the Iron Works and all other friends, ladies as well as gentlemen, in the Y. M. C. A. hall this evening, unless prevented by the steamer's departure for the Colonies.

"SAM. BURLS" was inadvertently printed instead of "Sam. Bowles," in a selected paragraph yesterday. It is worth while making this correction in view of the eminence of the late editor of the Springfield "Republican" in his profession.
WHILE some native carpenters were at work on the shed being built near the Palace, for the Military Companies, this morning, the staging gave way, and two of the workmen were precipitated to the ground, some 20 odd feet. Both men were considerably bruised.

decided on this plan of raising funds to pay for improvements on the boat house and to square up expenses of last year.

blessed sacrament.
DAISY PARTY.
The "daisy party" at the Yosemite rink, last evening, drew a large number of ladies and gentlemen.
There were many "jolly jack tars," from the war vessels in port, on wheels. A few of them could skate pretty well, but about a dozen created much laughter by their ludicrous contortions with a bluffbaug all in a heap. At 8:30 o'clock Mr.
Thomas Wall rang the bell for attention, and when all were quiet he delivered the following little speech: "Ladies and gentlemen, this is my last week in Honolulu for some time to come, and about my last night at this rink. I am going to Australia by the S. S. Mararoa, and I embrace this opportunity of thanking the patrons of this rink for their kindness, hoping they will do as well with my brother, who succeeds me in the management, as they have done by me." Pretty buttonhole bouquets were then passed around to every person, and at 9 o'clock dancing was commenced to the euphonious strains of the Hawaiian Band.
Mr. Thomas Wall has made many friends by his genial manner and good management of the rink, and they all wish him a pleasant voyage and a speedy return.
A NOBLE CRAFT.
The British bark Natuna that arrived here a few days ago, 135 days from Glasgow, on her maiden trip, is one of the most noble specimens of marine architecture that have ever entered these waters, not excepting even the magnificent steamships that now regularly call at this port. She was built by Russell & Co., Greenock and Port Glasgow, Scotland, is owned by Peter Dennison & Co., Glasgow, and is one of a line running to the port from Great Britain, for which Messrs. F. A. Schaefer & Co. are agents. The Natuna is built of iron, her gross tonnage 1800, measurement 1105 tons, length 217 ft., breadth 35 ft., depth of hold 21 ft. 3 in. Her houses are all on deck, giving a flush hold fore and aft. There is a collision bulkhead of iron near the bow, and the masts are of the same material.
Very ample ventilation is secured through the masts and also by separate hooded shafts. The standing rigging, of wire, has screw setting, that enables resetting with a very little trouble. All the upper works are finished in teak, with doors of pine and panels of birdseye maple, while the bulwarks are built of a species of ironwood from Guiana and figured with chaste design of old gold. The officers' rooms and the fore-castle are more than ordinarily airy and spacious, the comfort of the hardy mariners having evidently been made an important object. As for the captain's quarters, no passenger steamer can surpass them in provision for comfort, convenience and the gratification of elegant taste.

The galley is partitioned off from the fore-castle with iron plate; its floor is of iron covered with brick; thus the danger from fire in that quarter is placed at the minimum.
Every modern convenience for saving labor, such as patent windlass and capstan, is provided, besides which, where only strength and good mechanical finish are looked for on a sailing vessel, here those are found with the adornments of color and carving without any mere gingerbread work. After discharging the goods for this port, the Natuna will sail for San Francisco, where the bulk of her cargo is destined. She is under command of Capt. Grahn, who, in company with Mr. F. A.
Schaefer, this morning kindly showed a BULLETIN reporter all over the ship.
SUPREME COURT—APRIL TERM.
FRIDAY, April 16th.
Before McCully, J. In the suit of Ah Choy vs. Marshal Soper, mentioned yesterday, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $125 damages.
IN CHAMBERS.
SATURDAY, April 17th.
Before Chief Justice Judd. In re estate of J. M. Daigle, deceased.
Hearing on application of Hon. W.
C. Parke, administrator, with the will annexed, for confirmation of sale held April 13th instant, of the property of deceased, situate on Pensacola street, Honolulu. The premises sold are those mauka of W. O. Smith's lot, and were knocked down to Mrs. Lina Bolte, the last and highest bidder, for the sum of $1,500. The application is opposed by Mrs. J. M. Daigle, widow of deceased, on the ground that the price bid was inadequate, she relying on the affidavit of Mr. J. A.
Hassinger, an adjoining land owner, who states that the land is fully worth $2,000, and that if it were his he would not part with it for less than the sum of $2,500. On the other hand the affidavits of Messrs.
Jas. F. Morgan and C. W. Hart aver that the price bid was a fair one. The Court, however, to satisfy the heirs of the testator, ordered that the sale be set aside and that the premises be resold at an upset price of $1,500, without prejudice to Mrs.
Bolte's right of claiming that amount as her bid, should there be a failure of an advance from said amount.
The administrator for himself, Kinney & Peterson for the heirs.
